Spend Smart! Challenge

Do you know how much you spent on groceries last month? Being aware of what you are spending can help you budget better and avoid falling into debt. It's never too late to start spending smart!

What's it about?

The Spend Smart Challenge is about helping you make small, positive changes to your personal finance habits.

How long is the campaign?

Eight Weeks

The Challenge

Each week, keep track of your itemized expenses on your Expense Tracking Sheet and give yourself a point for each day you tracked on your Activity Tracker. Earn 40 points to complete the challenge!
